Dear Ms. Mahoney:

I understand that a member of my staff met with you early this week and was able to answer your questions in regard to the grievance of a former employee, [REDACTED] against the CIA. We are happy to assist when this sort of matter comes up. Do not hesitate to contact us if we can be of further assistance.

NOTES

STAT I met with Mary Mahoney and ^{him} satisfied that Senator DeConcini's office will reject request for a private bill. Mahoney asked for a letter, however, just to close out the file. This is what I propose. She indicated the letter would not have to go into the details of the case but just state that the matter has been taken care of.
